I am willing to putforth my acquired knowledge into something creative, practical and help people . this keeps me intrinsically motivated to explore and learn more and be a good listener. My objective is to work in healthcare organisation as a psychologist. I also feel the urge to contribute my share in shaping the society that we live in. Currently living in my hometown due to the pandemic situation. Looking forward to work from home.

Willing to relocate to: Bandra, Mumbai - Vile Parle, Mumbai - Andheri, Mumbai
